

Understanding Australia's International Outlook: A Sprintclass for Indonesians

Sprintclass

Course code: INDOA510

Participants will gain insights into Australia's foreign policy and global outlook, exploring its cultural and historical context, current international engagement, and future global aspirations. Designed for Indonesian learners, this bite-sized sprint series offers an accessible introduction to how Australia sees and positions itself in the world.

Duration : 2–3 hours

Delivery : self-paced and fully online

Languages : content is offered in English and Bahasa Indonesia

Cost : $199 +GST

Audience : this sprintclass delivers the same core content as our Sprintclass for the Global Community (INDOA500), tailored specifically for Indonesian participants. It explores Australia's international outlook through local context and examples, making the content more relevant and engaging.

Earn : certificate of completion

Assessed : via final quiz covering all course content

Module One

Australia's cultural and historical context

Module Two

Australia of today

Module Three

The Australia–Indonesia relationship

Module Four

Looking to the future

On-demand and open for enrolment year-round

You will learn to:

1. Describe the cultural and historical context of Australia's role in the Indo-Pacific region.
2. Explain Australia's government structures, economic settings, and international outlook.
3. Recognise the historical, contemporary and future aspects of the Australia–Indonesia relationship.
4. Identify how Australia aims to lead and collaborate on key issues in the Indo-Pacific.

Course sign up form: perthusasia.edu.au/education/indoa-510/

This course is delivered by the Perth USAsia Centre in partnership with The University of Western Australia

Who we are

The Perth USAsia Centre is a non-partisan, not-for-profit institution based at The University of Western Australia. We foster stronger connections, educate, and empower our government, business, academic, and civil communities to better understand the critical issues facing our region. Since our inception in 2013, we have informed a broad and diverse community of over 30,000 individuals through more than 800 events across 25 cities in 10 countries.

Why choose us

Expert-led courses: Learn from over 30 leading regional and international experts. Our courses provide high-quality, current, and relevant insights into Australia's international outlook and the dynamic Indo-Pacific region.

No prior knowledge required: Start learning immediately—no prerequisites needed.

University-backed: All courses are developed in partnership with The University of Western Australia, a global top-100 university.

Student support: Receive weekly emails to keep you on track, plus access to our team for questions. Online discussion boards are moderated to ensure timely responses and smooth engagement.

Accessible & inclusive: Courses are fully captioned and meet government and industry accessibility standards.

Bespoke learning solutions

The Centre offers bespoke learning and development programs for Australian government, business, academic and civil society communities in areas including:

1. Trade and investment economic diplomacy
2. International policy and strategies
3. Understanding Australia
4. Diplomatic tradecraft

It is also an approved provider on the Australian Government's Specialist Learning and Development (L&D) Panel under Standing Offer Notice 4095746.

We deliver in-person and live online briefings, workshops and education sessions, fully online courses, self-access digital resources, SCORM-based learning packages, and standalone multimedia materials.

✉ For enquiries, please contact Dr Lisa Cluett at: lisa.cluett@perthusasia.edu.au

Contact us:

Perth USAsia Centre
The University of Western Australia
35 Stirling Highway, Crawley WA 6009
✉ perthusasiacentre@uwa.edu.au
📞 +61 8 6488 4320

Stay connected:

in perth-usasia-centre
@ perthusasiacentre
f PerthUSAsia
X PerthUSAsia